TABLU HIGH SCHOOL TURN-OVER AND INAUGURATION. Sagittarius Mines, Inc. (SMI) Resident Manager Gerry P. Laviste (center) turns over the ceremonial key of the newly-constructed two school buildings of Tablu National High School to the school's Teacher-in-charge Donna S. Panes (extreme right) and Department of Education – South Cotabato Schools Division Superintendent Dr. Raphael Fontanilla (2nd from right) during the edifice's inauguration last 25 September. The school building is a partnership project of DepEd and SMI which aims to advance the education of the young people of Tablu, a mountain barangay in Tampakan which is one of the hosts of SMI's Tampakan Copper Project. The Tampakan project is located in the tri-boundaries of Tampakan in South Cotabato, Columbio in Sultan Kudarat, and Kiblawan in Davao del Sur. With Laviste are (from left) SMI Corporate Communications Manager John B. Arnaldo, and Community Relations and Development Superintendent Bella D. Lechonsito.
